Sermon: Death Swallowed Up in Victory

Speaker: Jason Robertson

Date: September 24, 2017

Luke 7: ¹¹Afterward he was on his way to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd were traveling with him. ¹²Just as he neared the gate of the town, a dead man was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was also with her. ¹³When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said, "Don't weep." ¹⁴Then he came up and touched the open coffin, and the pallbearers stopped. And he said, "Young man, I tell you, get up!" ¹⁵The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

PRAYER REQUESTS

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. If you didn't have to sleep, what would you do with the extra time?

DIGGING DEEPER

2. What was your one big take away from Sunday's message?

3. Compassion is an indispensable characteristic of Jesus. The other Gospels bear witness to this. Read Matthew 9:36; 14:14; 15:32; 20:34; Mark 1:40-41; 6:34. Based on those verses how would you describe Jesus' compassion?

4. Today we have Jesus' assurance in writing in the Holy Bible. He tells us not to be afraid because he is with us (Isaiah 41:10), not to feel anxious because he cares for us (1 Peter 5:7) and not to feel sad or overwhelmed by life's adversities (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18). These are just a few. Jesus has given us so much assurance that He cares about us and has everything under control. If you could ask Jesus for assurance about one thing, what would it be and why?

APPLICATION

5. Many assurances the world gives us turn out to be empty assurance, because the world can't deliver as much as it offers. But Jesus is not so. The people at the funeral of Jairus' daughter laughed at Jesus for they thought Jesus is insane (Luke 8:52-53). Martha knew too much she didn't believe when Jesus assured her brother Lazarus will rise again (John 11:23-24). But all of them realized how wrong they were. In fact, Jesus has kept every promise He has made to us. He rose again and He has given us new life! Read Ephesians 2:1-7. Christians have already experienced "resurrection" in Jesus Christ, getting a new, Spirit-filled life! Can you share your faith with at least one person this week or invite someone to join your table at HBChurch this weekend? Maybe share their name and let your group pray for them.
